

I am completely opposed to any weakening of the Wisconsin do not call list. I have enough problems dealing with the companies who don't abide by it much less answering the endless calls every day that were so aggravating.